
Fantastic weekend at Hartpury

Just back from a long but great weekend at the Hartpury WES show, need matchsticks for eyelids!

Once again, a fun show despite the atrocious weather (which did limit the partying somewhat on Saturday night, could have been a good thing!)

Another year when the great British summer prevented us using Hartpury's gorgeous outdoor arena...but the good humour, slick organisation and competitor friendly attitude of the area 6 show team really made the weekend.

They worked their socks off, and a lot of them were competing as well, so full marks.

It's still high on the list of our favourite shows, against some tough competition, and looking at the smiles on the faces of other competitors, we're not alone!

Will second that - many thanks to the show management team who coped well with the Great British summer!
