Contrary to a rumour going around the show is going ahead as planned. The showground will be open tomorrow at 3.00 p.m. as planned.

The latest weather forecast from the Met office is detailed below.

We are looking forward to seeing you all here over the weekend. For those in the Midlands and the West Country come and support your local show circuit. There's been a lot of talk about the all the shows being in the East of the country or in the South East and it's too far to travel etc etc. It's no use complaining if you don't come and support the ones that are closer to home be they at the 'Hand' 'Hartpury' or here. Vote with you feet and bring your hooves J

Latest regional update from the Met office

Weather forecast: South West England

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:

It should be largely dry on Saturday and Sunday with sunny spells, just the odd light shower likely. Cloud thickening on Monday with light rain edging in from the west.
