
Western riding lessons in sheffield

Posted by billybicep - 2007/04/19 21:49

>:(Hi can anyone help. My appaloosa mare and i are looking for western riding lessons in the sheffield or north derbyshire area. We are complete novices to western riding but enthusiastic and raring to go. If anyone knows of any trainers in the area could you let me know please.

Also anyone who can help fitting a western saddle, i have read all the advice but just don't know in practice :- :- when i try a saddle.

thanks loads

Rachael ;D ;)

Re: Western riding lessons in sheffield

Posted by Beths Guinness - 2007/04/20 10:15

hi a am from just out side of sheffield to yag some one close i am looking for a trainer as well so far i have only found one right the way the other side of Rotheram which for me its a bit to far. have you tried Rockys western trckings center thats in rotheram but the sheffield side they helped me with my saddle fitting. also im going to be running a have a go day at western ring for my local riding club at some point over the summer (Hope Vally Riding club) hope you fine this usfull all the best

Beth and Guinness

Re: Western riding lessons in sheffield

Posted by oakridgeqh - 2007/04/20 10:53

Hi

we are only 1 hour from sheffield, Oakridge Quarter Horses with Lee Rutter as resident trainer. hope this helps. Take a look on our website for lesson information etc www.oakridgequarterhorses.co.uk

Re: Western riding lessons in sheffield

Posted by Belle - 2007/07/28 21:55

Alan Payne is based in Leicestershire, he trains at his own yard but also travels out..... www.aphorses@orange.net

Re:Western riding lessons in sheffield

Posted by Muffin - 2007/11/26 09:13

We have weekly lessons in an indoor school with an approved western trainer just outside Sheffield. J30 off the M1

Regular clinics from guest trainers also
