
NUGGI- Missing whilst on loan

Posted by Julie - 2006/04/10 22:53

The loaner of this pony has moved house and moved the pony and the owner, who lives in Newcastle, is desperately trying to get in touch with her regarding the pony.

Last known location of Nuggi was in Longford, Coventry.

Nuggi is a 13.2hh, bright bay gelding. He is freeze marked 5CS1

Please circulate these details and lets hope that someone recognises this pony

Any chance of a photo (from the owner) we can put on the site?
