Hi Everybody

I need your help!

I am willing to travel down to the breed show to offer my DvD services BUT as it is a very long journey for me i need to know if there will be anyone who will 200% ABSOLUTELY POSITIVELY Be wanting a personalised DvD of their classes... I need at leased 12 people to 200% confirm that they would like DvDs done so my journey is not a wasted one...if I dont have enough people i wont be able to go...

NOW on a brighter note I WILL be at the BR show at david deptfords as he is only down the road from my family home...

Hope to hear from you

Marie

Update!

Only 9 places left to fill.

No matter if its the very first class or the very last AND every one in between - you order it i'll film it for you.

:)

Thanks to all those who responded!

but sadly I will not be able to attend the Breed show this time around..(i know its only wednesday but I have to decide now because i would have to travel back to pick up the equipment today then on thursday travel to the breedshow to get there the night before the early classes. Thats alot of darting about the country!...(if only i didnt live so far away! shakes fist)

But theres still chance to have dvds done at the BR show next weekend...

Marie
