awwww its that sexy photo of the budster, he looks lush there- so prefer his mane like that - wonder if i can get monique to arch Archies mane like his?? may ask at the next criollo meet.

love love love that spotty criollo the farriers father has - such a stunner - can't believe he owns so many now- will have to find out where he lives and plan a raid- already planning my moonlight raid on longleat to get bayo, rocha and marco :evil: - may need to take over my yard to fit them all in!

great photos hun and i am so looking forward to getting arch on the next one :P

Hi Trio

Thanks for the nice reply - I loved Buddys mane like that too , even though that was a months growth on it, today I hogged it off with electric clippers back to the skin head way - not so flattering.

I agree the Spotty is fab - its really fast too!!

Also Bevs lot are great - how lucky for the 3 of them to keep their Criollos together like that.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next meet (end of April)

Well, we are riding at least 2 evenings a week as well, I want to do more but its taking a while to fit everything else around Marco! ;) Nice now the nights are drawing out so its going to get better for evening rides. What about you? Pics from last eve, Sally rode Cicatrez for Bev as she isn't very well, was he keen! Out in front all the way, which is usually Marco's spot, (he doesn't like being behind, so it does him good) It never ceases to amaze me, how chilled they are, yet once they are tacked up and you are on them, how they transform,:laugh:
